

I, Am a member of the Public Service and of “Clean Hands”, An alliance of Sri Lankan Public Sector Officers against Corruption committed to eliminate corruption in the Public Service. I am aware that the reputation and credibility of the Public Service and public confidence in it is built on and depends upon the unimpeachable integrity of its members.

I accept and will abide by the constitution of “Clean Hands”, the alliance of public sector officers against corruption.

I have read and understood the vision, mission and objectives of “Clean Hands”. I subscribe to them fully without reservation and will exert my best endeavors to realize their fulfillment. I will refrain from making any decision or taking any action that is contrary to the objectives of the alliance or which contravenes its principles.

I, declare that I have read and understood and hold myself completely bound, without any exception or reservation, by the code of conduct approved by “Clean Hands”.

I will disclose any information received on corrupt practices to the proper authorities and to “Clean Hands.” I declare and affirm that I will not use either my official position or the state property in my custody and other public assets in an irregular manner or for my personal benefit, the benefit of members of my family and friends and associates.

I do solemnly and sincerely declare and affirm / swear that in the discharge of the duties of my office in accordance with government policy, and its rules and regulations, I will also be guided by the objectives of "CLEAN HANDS" and that I will do my best to advance its mission of "ensuring and preserving a Sri Lankan public service that is corruption free, accountable and transparent in its conduct."
