Age limit for Recruitment to the Posts for which a degree from a university is required as the educational qualification in Schemes of Recruitment

The Cabinet has decided at its meeting held on 29.06.2011 to revise the minimum and maximum age limit for recruitment as 21 and 35 years respectively in respect of the posts for which a degree from a university is required as the educational qualification in the relevant Schemes of Recruitment, when applying for posts in Public Service.

02. The above revision shall not be applicable at the instances where the degree is considered as the educational qualification for recruitment in terms of the provisions of Service Minutes.
