Efficiency Bar Examination of the Officers in Class III of Public Management Assistants' Service

Concessionary periods have been granted to the officers in Class III of Public Management Assistants' Service who were recruited from 10.12.2007 to 02.04.2009 to pass the Efficiency Bar Examinations, since the examinations were not held in due time.

02. Further, it has been decided by the Public Service Commission to grant a concessionary period of 04 consecutive sittings held from 11.04.2011 as follows for all the officers who were appointed to Class III of Public Management Assistants' Service on 11.04.2011 as well, to pass the First Efficiency Bar Examination.

Date of Appointment	Dates on which the examinations considered for the concessionary period were held
11.04.2011	01.10.2011
	27.01.2013

03. Accordingly, if the officers, who were appointed on the above mentioned date, complete the Efficiency Bar Examination within the said 04 sittings, the salary will not be deferred and the probation period of the other officers will be extended up to the date on which the Efficiency Bar Examination is completed.

04. You are further informed to request to revise the probation period of the officers, whose salaries were deferred despite passing the Efficiency Bar examination as per para 04 above, through the Head of the Institution.
