Early completion of the uncompleted establishment activities of the Development Officers' service

More than 82,000 development officers belonging to the Combined Service are serving at present, and a large number of letters are sent to the Combined Services Division for various establishment activities of those officers every day. My letter of even numbered and dated 17.09.2021 addressed to all heads of institutions, making them aware of the deficiencies in the documents has been published on the website of this ministry.

02. However, you are kindly informed to submit by completing the Google form given by the link below the particulars of the establishment activities for which you have forwarded documents to the Combined Services division for confirmation of appointments, promotions, absorptions, transfers and other establishment activities but which have not yet been completed due to the restriction of calling officers for duty in view of the Covid pandemic and the current situation in the country.
