Applying for an Australia Awards scholarship

Australia Awards scholarships in Sri Lanka

As set out in DFAT’s Sri Lanka COVID-19 Development Response Plan, Australia’s development cooperation program in Sri Lanka contributes to three objectives: health security, social stability and economic recovery from COVID-19, with a focus on inclusion and addressing vulnerability. Australia Awards scholarships provide citizens of Sri Lanka with the opportunity to obtain a qualification at an Australian tertiary institution.

Awards will be offered for commencement in 2023 and also as per post COVID-19 travel regulations within the following allocations:

- Masters level qualification (by coursework or research).

Options for mode of delivery and structure of the courses are currently re-examined to suit the post COVID-19 context. These options could include pre-course work or coursework components in Sri Lanka by Australian tertiary institutions that have already established a presence.

A limited number of technical and vocational level qualifications leading to Master's level or equivalent is likely to be considered depending on the skill demand.

Specific details on the structure and mode of delivery will depend on selected courses and when finalized can be found at www.australiaawardssrilanka.org
